CORAM : ANOOP V. MOHTA, J.

DATE : 14.11.2005

. Heard. An application for an injunction was granted by order dated 19.9.2001. The appellate Court by an order dated 10th June, 2003 allowed the appeal and set aside the order of grant of injunction of the property in question between the parties. The petitioner therefore, has invoked Article 227 of Constitution of India by this petition. By order dated 1st October, 2003, this

Court has passed order of status quo as under;

" Status quo as on today till further order."

This order is continued since then.

2. After considering the rival contentions between the parties, In the facts and circumstances of the case, it is necessary that the parties to maintain status quo as ordered by this Court on 1st October, 2003, till the decision of the suit between the parties. All points are kept open. Suit is expedited, as petitioner is 60 years old lady and other side is also senior citizen.

. The trial Court to act on authenticated copy of this order.
